

MANDORLE DOLCI 71001

DESCRIPTION

Extracted by cold pressing, sweet almond oil is rich in vitamins E, B, carbohydrates and amino acids and has numerous beneficial properties for the skin. It is a valid aid in combating and preventing the onset of skin stretch marks, thanks to its elasticising properties.

The fatty acids, of which it is rich, make it particularly suitable for the treatment of dry and irritated skin and as an excellent adjuvant in the prevention of wrinkles and skin aging.

It can also be used as an excellent alternative to cleansing milk for daily facial cleansing, to remove make-up and impurities.

Nourishes dry, frizzy and brittle hair.

Ideal for a relaxing massage with or without the addition of other oils.
